(d) Exclusions and Disqualifications

Under s. 8 of the Act,

- No employees of the NSRDDA may serve on its Board or any of its Committees
- Subject to the regulations, no current or former Board member of a professional association may serve on the Board or a Statutory Committee or Joint Panel for that profession until 24 months have elapsed since the member's last day as a Board member of the professional association
- Subject to the regulations, members of the Board may not serve as a member of a Statutory Committee
- Subject to the next bullet, registrants of another regulated health profession may not serve as a public representative on the NSRDDA Board or Statutory Committees
- For further clarity, a member of the Board may serve on the Registration and Licensing Committee or the Complaints Committee provided that no more than one Board member serves on a panel of those Committees (as per Section 17 of the Regulated Health Professions General Regulations)
- Former license-holders of a regulated health profession in Nova Scotia or any jurisdiction may serve as a public representative on the NSRDDA Board or Statutory Committees or Joint Panels if:
 - There is no more than one former license-holder or equivalent on the Board, Committee or Joint Panel; and
 - The former license-holder or equivalent is not a former license-holder or equivalent in a dentistry or dental assisting profession.

Furthermore, individuals are ineligible if they:

- Are currently an undischarged bankrupt
- Are involved in ongoing legal proceedings that may impair their ability to serve
- Hold a position that creates a direct conflict of interest with the Regulator's work
- Have been removed or resigned from a regulatory Board or Committee for cause within the past 5 years

(e) Commitment to EDIRA Principles

The NSRDDA is committed to embedding Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, Reconciliation, and Accessibility (EDIRA) in all aspects of our governance, including appointments to our Board and Statutory Committees. We believe that embracing these principles reflects the diverse communities we serve, strengthens our ability to regulate effectively, and protects the public.

We encourage applications from all qualified candidates, including those from underrepresented and equity-deserving groups.

5. Monitoring and Policy Review

The Chair of the Governance and Human Resources Committee will ensure that this policy is reviewed in accordance with the Board's policy review cycle or as required by significant operational or environmental changes.

6. Accountability

The Board Chair and the Chair of the Governance and Human Resources Committee are accountable for ensuring compliance with this policy.
